Dear [redacted] STAT

I would like to invite you to a dinner meeting with other members of the Steering Committee for a review of the Kennedy School's Intelligence and Policy Project and a discussion of its research efforts. The meeting will take place on Wednesday, June 10, at the Dacor Bacon House at 1801 F Street, N.W., beginning with drinks at 6:30 p.m. Both Dean Albert Carnesale of the Kennedy School and Director of Central Intelligence Robert Gates will be joining us for the meeting.

The meeting will be an opportunity for review of the Project, where we have been and where we intend to go. It seems a particularly good time for such a review, given the large changes in process in both the intelligence and policy communities. We are preparing a short report to use as the basis for our conversation, and I will send it to you before the meeting.

I hope that you will be free on June 10 and look forward to seeing you. Would you please ask a member of your staff to call Bonnie Stabile at (617) 495-1103 to let us know if you will be joining us.

Sincerely yours,

Ernest R. May
